

Alcan Engineered and Automotive Solutions Joint Venture with Engley for production of lightweight aluminium components

The head office of “Alcan Engley Automotive Structures” will be based in Changchun in the North-East of China and a second production site is situated in the Shanghai region.

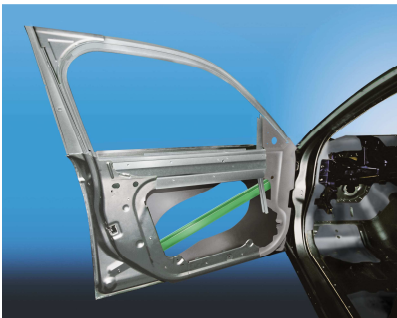

The contracts are signed and production has been launched

Crash management systems: lightweight safety components for leading car manufacturers

A core competence of EAS: design and engineering of crash components

Aluminium side impact beams preserve passenger compartment integrity while reducing weight

October 5, 2009/em